ETIQUETTE STATEMENT FOR ALL MEMBERS AND VISITORS

The Code of Behaviour ensures that Y members, volunteers and staff treat one another with courtesy and fairness. Copies of our Etiquette Statement are available at the Member Service desk.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP CARD

You are the only one who can use your Brantford Y membership card. It is not transferable. Use of your membership card by someone else is not allowed. Please keep your card safe and notify Member Services immediately if it is lost or stolen. With our new swipe system you must bring your card each and every visit. Access denied without your card.

SWIPE CARD ACCESS

Upon arrival, please swipe your membership card at the Member Service Desk access point. Please protect your card from loss or theft at all times.

Your Y membership entitles you to use other YMCAs.

RETURNED PAYMENT

If a payment does not clear the bank account, or the credit card is not approved to cover the payment, the balance owing will include the applicable service charge. This service charge is currently $35.00 per transaction. If the YMCA of Brantford does not receive the balance due by cash or credit card within twenty (20) days, the membership will be cancelled with no refund.

CANCELLATION POLICY

- A membership may be cancelled at any time, and must be made in writing to the YMCA of Brantford at least two (2) weeks before the effective date of cancellation. Please note, we are unable to accept cancellation by phone. Cancellations will not be back-dated. No refund shall be issued. The membership card must be returned to the YMCA upon membership cancellation.*

DONATIONS

The YMCA of Brantford is a registered charity, dedicated to lifelong growth and building strong kids, families and communities. Donations help fund Y subsidies for those in need, and are tax-receiptable. Please see Member Service staff for more information.
